WALKER STATEMENT ON DISCIPLINARY ACTION AT CCC

MILWAUKEE – County Executive Scott Walker issued the following statement regarding the case of Huber inmate Freddy T. Dudley at the Milwaukee County Community Correctional Center (CCC):

“Ron Malone, Superintendent of the House of Correction, has recommended the termination of three correctional officers and is taking further disciplinary action against two supervisors which could range from suspension to demotion. The three recommended for termination will be suspended without pay pending a hearing before the Personnel Review Board.

I have zero tolerance for those who do not follow the established policies needed to ensure that Huber offenders are accounted for at the CCC or their place of employment. Staff must follow every established policy and anyone who does not will be disciplined or terminated.”
